FEBRUARY 11TH

WILLIAM STONEWALL MONROE

William Stonewall Monroe paints pictures with words and melody. While he works the craft of song, one can hear his background in piano and bass guitar in his rhythmic, percussive guitar playing, and catch glimpses of his soul while he sings. His roots lie in blues, folk, rock, and classical music, which blend into something uniquely his own. His music has been played on KRUI, and he is active performing at music festivals and venues in eastern Iowa.

THE AUSTIN TAFT SOUNDTRACK

The Austin Taft Soundtrack is a monster power trio from Waterloo, IA that delivers a revolutionary new genre of music called "Rock 2.0." The group will perform a variety of original music in acoustic, stripped-down arrangements for The Java House patrons while maintaining the strong focus and positive energy of its well known electric performances.

PERFORMANCE BEGINS AT 8PM
