KATE KANE

Kate Kane is a 21 year old singer songwriter from Iowa City. She began playing guitar at age 12, while trying to get over a severe case of Beatlemania. While attending West High School, she was unable to pick up an acoustic guitar without writing a heart shattering love song. She threw the emotional outbursts onto a few records, and then let her short attention span lead her elsewhere. She plays guitar in the band Lipstick Homicide, and in several other Iowa City bands. Now, she is bringing the acoustic guitar back. . . and more.

PERFORMANCES BEGIN AT 8PM
