FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 10TH

RYNE DOUGHTY MILK & EGGS

Ryne Doughty is no stranger to Southeast Iowa. Born and raised in Washington, IA, it was there that he discovered his love of bluegrass inflected folk music and started to make it himself. Listing John Prine and Mississippi John Hurt as influences, he writes understated, but powerful songs about everyday life and everyday people.

Milk & Eggs, though a relatively new project of Jordan Sellegren, has already made big impressions on the Eastern Iowa music scene. Her debut self-titled album was released in July of last year, catching the attention of the famed Daytrotter studios in Rock Island. Her songs cover topics from the transcendent to the seemingly banal, showing audiences how they all interact.

PERFORMANCE BEGINS AT 8PM
