

THE MORMON TREK JAVA HOUSE PRESENTS
GROUNDS FOR ART
FEATURING

LARRY ROBINSON

OPENING RECEPTION
March 27th: 7pm to 9pm
Mormon Trek Java House
Meet the artist * Light refreshments available

Larry Robinson is a graduate student at The University of Iowa. He is a native of the St. Louis, Missouri area. He photographs fairy tale-like installations within nature and domestic scenes. These photographs use pop culture as a vehicle to question the environmental impact of American nutritional demands.

New to the Mormon Trek Java House, GROUND FOR ART intends to offer local artists an opportunity to showcase their work for the public. Look for a new featured artists monthly, come to the reception to meet the artist, enjoy the art, and experience your neighborhood Java House in a new way! Contact nateasa@thejavahouse.com with questions.

THE JAVA HOUSE
thejavahouse.com